Re: Certain Grant Applications

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of Energy Policy Advocates, recognized as a non-profit public policy institute under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, pursuant to the California Public Records Act §§ 6250 et seq., please provide copies of the following records: any application(s) for grants submitted by Next Energy Technologies on its own or in partnership with any other entity, during the calendar years 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and/or 2020.

We understand that in some instances a public body may charge a fee for the cost of the search, examination, review, copying, separation of confidential from nonconfidential information, and mailing costs. If your Office expects to seek a charge associated with the searching, copying or production of these records, please provide an estimate of anticipated costs.

As noted earlier in this request, EPA is a non-profit public policy organization dedicated to informing the public of developments in the area of energy and environmental issues and relationships between governmental and non-governmental entities as they relate to those issues. EPA's ability to obtain fee waivers is essential to this work. EPA intends to use any responsive information to continue its work highlighting the nexus between interested non-governmental entities and government agency decision-making. The public is both interested in and entitled to know how regulatory, policy and enforcement decisions are reached. EPA ensures the public is made aware of its work and findings via its partnership with the non-profit public interest law firm Government Accountability & Oversight, P.C., and the ClimateLitigationWatch.org project dedicated to broadly disseminating energy and environmental policy news and developments. The public information obtained by EPA and published on ClimateLitigationWatch.org have been relied upon by established media outlets, including the Washington Times and Wall Street Journal editorial page.¹

We look forward to your response. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact me by email at ncornettlaw@gmail.com

Sincerely,
Neal Cornett
Attorney at Law
