RE: Colorado Open Records Act request

Dear Mr. Hardin:

We received your Colorado Open Records Act request seeking the following:

- “all opinions, analyses and/or or determinations concluding that a) [our] Office has the legal authority to hire or otherwise bring into the Office, under any title whether Special Assistant Attorney General, Special Counsel, or otherwise, an NYU Fellow²; b) a Special Assistant Attorney General/Counsel, or anything else offered or provided by NYU, does or does not constitute an impermissible gift under applicable law, code or regulation; and/or that c) a Special Assistant Attorney General/Counsel, or anything else provided by NYU, does or does not comply with or violate applicable ethics, professional conduct or anti-corruption law, code or regulation; also
- all correspondence i) sent to, from, or copying (whether as cc: or bcc:) a) Natalie Hanlon Leh, b) June Taylor, and/or c) Eric Olson that ii) includes, anywhere, “NYU”, be it in an email address (e.g., @nyu.edu), Subject field, body of an email or any attachments.”

We have no records responsive to your request.

Under section 24-72-205, C.R.S., we may charge a reasonable fee for the search, retrieval, redaction, and copying of criminal justice records. Your request did not result in any charges due.

Sincerely,

FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
